FACTORY INSPECTION.

Matters Pertaining to It Discussed by the Delegates.

The roll call at yesterday morning's session of the International Association of State Factory Inspectors showed an increased number of delegates present, quite a number having arrived Tuesday night. The majority of the delegates in attendance are from the States having bureaus of factory inspection. After the routine business of the morning session had been transacted, J. M. Dyson, of Massachusetts, introduced Henry Dorn, of Columbus, O., as 'the "Father of the International Factory Inspectors' Association." Mr. Dorn spoke of the joint efforts of himself and Rufus R. Wade, of Massachusettts, to form the asn, which he said had its formal start in 1886. The first set speech on the programme was made by Charles Litchin, of Washington, D. C. He discussed n a general way the factory inspection aws of the different States and referred with commendation to the statutes of husetts on the subject of labor. He said that women and children were now being taught to operate dangerous machinery in factories, and that the factory inspectors should guard against such ng it. Other papers were read by John J. Williams, of Milwaukee; W. E. Walling, of Illionis; Warren S. Buxton, of Massachusetts; A. J. Haines, of Illinois; H. T. Story, of New York; M. N. Baker, of Pennsylvania; John W. Bath, of Ohio, and David Fisher and William Woehrlin, of Ohio. The paper read by William English Walling was on "Dangerous Trades," and was well received. He is a nephew of Capt. W. E. English

In the afternoon, after having their pic tures taken on the steps of the Capitol, the delegates paid a visit to the T. B. Laycock Manufacturing Company's plant, an pection of which took up almost the

This morning at 8 o'clock the delegates will leave for Anderson, Elwood and Mancie, where they will inspect some of the belt factories. The sessions of the sociation will be concluded to-morrow.

COUNTY COMMITTEE IS RAPIDLY AR-RANGING THE DETAILS.

Two Stands Will Be Erected in the Courthouse Grounds for Roosevelt Day.

PARADE AT

CLUBS FROM OUTSIDE THE CITY WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE.

Some Republican Meetings in This City-Political Gossip of Interest.

As rapidly as possible the officers of the Republican county committee are arranging the details for the reception to be given Governor Roosevelt on his arrival here next Thursday afternoon. As near as can be ascertained now the Roosevelt train will get here about 4 o'clock from Richmond. The county committee is being assisted by Colonel Harry B. Smith, who has been appointed marshal of the parade that is to be given in Roosevelt's honor on Thursday

Secretary Elliott said yesterday that the contracts were being awarded for the two stands that will have to be erected in the courthouse grounds. The stand where the meeting will be held in the afternoon will be in the northwest corner of the grounds. The reviewing stand for the night demonstration will be erected in the southwest corner of the grounds. This morning Col. Smith and some of the members of the county committee will have a conference as to the general arrangement of details. Colonel Smith will select a number of aids. Colonel Smith has received a letter from a ommittee at the Union stockyards stating that that institution will be represented in the parade. The letter announces that some of the representative business men at the yards will be in the parade, with possibly three tallyhos and seven carriages. The committee's letter stated that the stockyards delegation would like a prominent place in the parade.

Smith says they may have what they ask for. The Cannon Escort Club, of Danville, Ill., has also asked for a prominent position in the parade. They will come one hundred strong, and it is said they make a handsome appearance. Colonel Smith expects to receive many other requests for positions in the parade. Frank B. Posey was in the city yesterday, and says that Evansville will give Governor Roosevelt a big reception. His train will reach there Friday evening, Oct. 2, and the meeting will be held in Evans Hall Friday night. From Evansville Gov. Roosevelt will go into Kentucky. Mr. Posey accompany the Roosevelt party through a part of Kentucky. Mr. Posey has recently done some campaigning in Kentucky, and incidentally remarked yesterday that he believed that State to be safely Republican. He says that wherever he goes in Indiana people tell him of Democrats who are going to vote for "four years more of McKinley." CONDITIONS IN THE WEST.

Fred E. Holloway Was with Senator

Fairbanks on Speaking Tour. Fred E. Holloway, of Anderson, has returned from his trip West with Senator Fairbanks, Mr. Holloway joined Senator Fairbanks at Denver and journeyed with him to the Pacific slope. Mr. Holloway spoke with Senator Fairbanks at Portland, Ore., Salt Lake, Utah, and at San Jose and San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Holloway was in the city yesterday and spoke enthusiastically of the trip and the indications for Republican success in the West. He says that Senator Fairbanks had a fine meeting in Denver. He declares that were it not for the fact that Colorado gave Bryan such a tremendous majority in 1896 he would feel justified in believing that Mc-Kinley would get the electoral vote of that State this year. "The Republicans of Colorado," said Mr. Holloway, "are very hopeful of carrying the State anyway." At Salt Lake City there was another big meeting presided over by Governor Wells, who was formerly a Silver Republican. "We are going to carry Utah," asserted Mr. Holloway, "and California will be Republican. Senator Fairbanks got great ovations at San Francisco and San Jose, and also at Portland The Republicans will carry Oregon. Washington has been in doubt but I regard it as safely Republican. Wyoming is Republican and so is Idaho. I learned in the West that Kansas is reliably Republican, too. The smoking room of a Pullman car is a sort of a clearing house for the exchange of opinions and there I met traveling men who told me that Nebraska will go Republican. There is really no issue in the West. There is plenty of prosperity

BRYAN AND AGUINALDO.

Their Names Linked Together by Philippine Insurgents.

Frederick E. Matson has received a letter from his friend, Dr. H. S. Moore, who is an assistant surgeon in the United States army in the Philippines. With the lette came a copy of a Filipino newspaper, the organ of the insurgents. One paragraph describes a meeting which was evidently held in the interests of the insurgents. Translated into English the paragraph is as follows:

"In those discourses, some delivered in most eloquent Spanish, while others were vigorous, in elegant Tagalo, and full of the virility of the Ilolo language and phrases of the Pampango, the names of Bryan and Aguinaldo were always joined together two figures who join their names across the seas, pronounced as firm allies in the great Philippine question, and coworkers in the cause of justice, and protectors of the rights trampled on by the despotism of the hirelings of McKinley. The people, moved to great enthusiasm, applauded the addresses, giving hearty cheers and prolonged hurrahs at the end of each speech, and as the orators descended from the rostrum erected in the center of the hall.' "Everything is pretty quiet all over the island," Dr. Moore wrote, "and what trouble is stirring is being kept up by the few leaders still free, begging the 'faithful' to hold out until after Bryan is elected in November, when they will all be free as he has promised it. You would be surprised to find out how many of the 'leading' people believe it. I made a long ride the coast road-seventy miles-the other day and talked to lots of people that I had met when we first 'toured' the country and they all wanted to know if didn't think Bryan would be elected and free them. (But I had to turn 'em down.) So you can see that all of the deaths of the past six months or more can be laid on the shoulders of the Boston antis and their kin, the Democrats, because the affair is ended to all intents and purposes. Ninetynine out of every one hundred of the middle and common class, have enough, and want to farm and live in peace-that is, their peace, which is only to kill a man now and then, to keep your hand in, as it were, for their Malay blood won't allow them to be good. I wish I could be home to help out this November; 'twill be a glorious fight, but we ought to win." • •

that City.

John L. Griffiths Made a Speech in

John L. Griffiths, of this city, addressed a political meeting at Louisville Monday right, and the newspapers of that city took special pains to describe his personal appearance. One paper gave this graphic description of the eloquent Indianian: "Mr Griffiths is a short, heavy-set gentleman very fat and jolly. He is full of sarcasm. He speaks with great distinctness, but so hurriedly that it is impossible for his audience to follow him, as good phrases follow so rapidly upon each other that his audience is actually afraid to interrupt him with applause through fear of missing something good. Throughout his entire speech of over an hour not a man left the audience, while those that could elbowed their way in the best they could." Another paper described Mr. Griffiths as "a small, stout man with a mellow voice and fine delivery." The paper says: "He attracted the fullest attention of his audience to every utterance. Bedlam broke cose when in opening his speech he said. 'Ladies and gentlemen, I bring you greeting from a neighboring State, whose Governor refuses to surrender the duly elected Governor of your commonwealth to be tried by a partisan jury and prejudiced court on a political indictment. Scarcely had the tremendous burst of applause which greeted this begun to subside when a man in the audience jumped to his feet and cried: 'Three cheers for Governor Mount.' Other men jumped to their feet, hats went into the air and the rafters echoed and re-echoed with the mingled shouts for Mount, Taylor and Griffiths which went up from thousands of throats."

Big Meeting at Southport. Last night W. L. Taylor addressed the citizens of Southport. The hall was packed and the street crowded. Over 2,000 people were in the town. Delegations were in from Acton, Greenwood, Rocklane and West Newton. The Rough Rider Club of Perry township, about one hundred strong, was out and made a fine display. The parade was nearly one-half mile long. At least one-half the crowd was unable to get inside the house. The speech was a John McGaughey, Thomas Spafford and Mr. Pritchard, of Acton, were present.

A Good Meeting Held.

J. H. Lott and W. C. Hodge addressed a large meeting of colored and white voters at Tenth and Bismarck streets, Haughville, last night. There were about 250 present. National issues were discussed in a general way. Mr. Hodge spoke as a laboring man, telling his hearers the colored man had his muscle to place on the market, and he should vote for the administration that has always guaranteed him the highest wages.

In the Fourth Ward.

A well attended meeting of colored Republicans was held in the eleventh precinct of the Fourth ward last night. Several instructive speeches were made.

He Had Long Been a Practitioner in This County - Death of Mrs. Larrie.

Dr. William C. Morgan, of the Central College of Physicians and Surgeons, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 622 North Alabama street, after a short illness,

Dr. Morgan was forty-seven years of age, and was born in Johnson county. After leaving the high school there he attended the old Northwestern University in this city, and in 1873 went to St. Louis, Mo., where he graduated from the St. Louis Medical College in 1875. He practiced in that city for one year and then came to Indianapolis, but soon removed to Julietta, where he was engaged in active practice for nine years. He then returned to Indianapolis and became connected with the Central College of Physicians and Surgeons. He was for several years professor of anatomy, later occupying the chairs of fractures and dislocations and orthopedic and

Mr. Morgan was married in 1875, and his wife and four children survive him. The arrangements for the funeral were not complete last night, but the services will probably be held at the family home tomorrow afternoon.

SHOCK CAUSED DEATH.

Writ of Ejectment Read to Mrs. Robert Larrie.

Robert Larrie, of 1411 Nebraska street, whose wife was buried yesterday at Franklin, complains that her death was due to shock caused by the reading of a writ of ejectment from the house in which they lived. At the time the constable read the writ Mrs. Larrie was critically ill, and t once began getting worse. The house is not owned by the German Fire Insurance Company, as stated in afternoon papers.

BARRED OUT OF INDIANA.

State Refuses Request of National Tontine Association.

Secretary of State Union B. Hunt yesterday refused to allow the National Tontine Association, of South Bend, to file articles of incorporation in the State of Indiana. He rendered his decision after receiving a communication from Attorney General Taylor bearing on the subject. The decision of Attorney General Taylor is as follows:

"While the articles on their face appear egular, the name of the company indicates that it is not intended for the purpose of manufacturing and selling jewelry, but for the purpose of selling jewelry upon contracts similar to those of the Tontine Surety Company and the Diamond Contract Company, recently ousted from the State of Ohio at the suit of the attorney general. "The contracts issued by these companies show that they are seeking to do business by making contracts which could not, by any possibility, be carried out by the company, if the members for their part carried out their contracts. A company which proposes to sell diamonds for less than half of what they are worth or to pay money amounting to more than twice what has been paid in, and which maintains a very heavy expense fund, can succeed only on the theory that its terms are so onerous that its members must let their contracts lapse, and that it seeks to do business by making a contract which is so burdensome that the other party to t will not or cannot keep it up. The plan of operation is entirely analogous to the various schemes of men who propose to give away something of conceded value for a consideration of vastly less value. "It has never been the policy of the State of Indiana to permit its citizens to be imposed upon. I therefore advise that, while the papers are regular in form, the name indicates that it is merely a cloak under which may be perpetrated a scheme to the loss and injury not only of citizens of Indiana but of other States.

"I therefore advise you to reject the papers, and assure you of my belief that our ccurts will not mandate you to be a party

BEFORE THREE

CASES ATTACKING BARRETT LAW BEING CONSIDERED.

They Are Also Weighing Other Important Cases-A Claim for Services-Other Court Cases.

Judge Carter, Judge Leathers and Judge McMaster, the three judges of the Superior Court, were in session nearly all day yesterday, considering eight suits pending in their several courts that involve the Barrett law. So far as the constitutionality of the law is concerned, that has been settled by the Supreme Court, but another point has been raised which is intended to improvement contracts will be illegal. This point is the seven years' contract to keep the streets in repair, which, in a part of the complaints filed, is alleged to be illegal. The contention is, that these agreements being illegal, the entire contract is void. The three judges will remain in session the rest of the week to consider big cases pending. Among these is the Howard case against the State of Indiana that has been in the courts several years. Howard is the contractor who built the Statehouse, and he entered a claim amounting to about a half million dollars which he asserts is due him on the contract. This case, with other knotty problems weighing upon the judges, will likely be decided this week, or decisions will be arrived at that will materially assist in making final judgments at

The state's attorney yesterday filed answers to the seventeen suits filed against the State by members of Company E. of the old Second Regiment of the National Guard, and these cases may also be considered by the three judges. The complainants all live in Franklin and returned ome when the State troops were mustered into the federal service. They claim com pensation for the time they served at Camp Mount as members of the National Guard. The answer sets out that when the National Guard went into camp at the beginning of the Spanish-American war it was Some committees will be appointed, and DR. W. C. MORGAN DEAD in response to the call of Governor Mount for volunteers for federal service. It is stated the call was not compulsory, and that any member of the National Guard did not have to report for duty unless he desired to enlist in the volunteer army. The answer says the purpose of the mobilization of troops was to enlist men for the federal army, and it was so understood when the call was made.

Appeal of Mrs. Jenkins.

An appeal by the widow of William H. Jenkins from the refusal of the Ripley Circuit Court to appoint her as administratrix de bonis non of her deceased husband's estate was filed in the Supreme Court yesterday. Jenkins was one of the men who was taken from the jail at Versailles and lynched about three years ago. His widow went to Chicago to live, where she brought suit against many citizens of Versailles, alleging that they were in the mob that hanged her husband. The courts held that her removal to Illinois did not give her the right to be appointed administratrix there. She then made application in Ripley county, where her petition was denied.

James Thompson's Complaint.

James Thompson filed an amended complaint in Judge Carter's court, yesterday, in his suit against John R. Love, Hugh M. Love, Stephan A. Bemis, Abram G. Brower and Judson M. Bemis, for $700 on an account. He asserts that the defendants engaged in the business of bleaching and finishing cotton goods in Indianapolis, in 1895, and that his expert services were secured to assist in starting the plant. He says he was then a man of sixty years' experience in the business, and contracted to work for the firm three months for $10 a day. He says he worked seventy-one days and has not received any money, be sides paying his expenses to and from home in New York.

Argument on Guardianship.

The guardianship of Lorena Thompson will be decided by Judge Walker, of the probate department this morning. Charles Kenton was appointed guardian of the girl vesterday, with the understanding that her father be immediately notified and that he be allowed to enter an objection. The father objected and hearing was set for this morning at 9 o'clock. The guardian was appointed on a petition of the girl's uncle. The girl is in a Catholic school and her uncle desired that she be taken away. The girl's mother is dead and the father has been keeping her in the school.

Seeking Their Release.

Thomas Conners and Daniel Ill filed habeas corpus petitions in the Circuit Court yesterday, to obtain their release from the workhouse. Conners was fined $100 on charge of loitering, and his petition attacks the constitutionality of the ordinance providing for his commitment. Ill was fined $150 and sentenced to 180 days on a charge of drawing deadly weapons. He companion, is the only surviving member avers the signatures of the Police Court officials were stamped on his commitment.

Sent to Penitentiary.

Edward Fitzgerald, forty years old, was sentenced to the State Prison at Michigan City, by Judge Alford, of the Criminal Court, yesterday, for breaking into Lenihan's saloon, on the South side. It was charged he burglarized the place and secured about $19 in money.

Will Be Heard To-Day.

The Supreme Court will hear the contempt proceedings against William S. Reister, an attorney of Evansville, this morning. Reister is charged with having changed the record of appeal in the case of Harris vs. the State, in which he represented the appellant.

Bound Over to Grand Jury.

Frank McGarahan, fourteen years of age, was bound over to the grand jury yesterday on a charge of grand larceny. He | Hall, last night. was brought back from Louisville, where he went after stealing $40 from the Putnam Creamery Company.

GRAND LODGE ADJOURNS.

The Migratory Idea Settled Finally-Rathbone Sisters.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias closed its session in this city yesterday afternoon, after the installation of the officers elected Tuesday and an animated discussion as to making of the Grand Lodge a migratory body. The members from Fort Wayne introduced a resolution for a reconsideration of the action providing that the lodge should not be a migratory body. There are in the lodge a large number of members who favor the action, and the matter was brought up one year ago and laid over until this meeting. The question was, however, finally settled adversely. The matter of changes in the constitution was brought up when the report of the committee was read, but action was deferred until the next annual meeting. Supreme Chancellor Ogden H. Fethers, of Janesville, Wis., took up considerable time yesterday in exemplification of the unwrit-en work of the ritual.

Considerably Agitated. The election of officers of the Rathbone Sisters yesterday morning brought out a peculiar situation, which no one seemed able or willing to explain, and in view of the rivalry and close vote for grand chief caused considerable excitement. Miss Etta C. Houk, of Scottsburg, and Mrs. Carrie Fanning, of Butler, were the candidates. The vote after two and one-half hours showed the election of Mrs. Fanning, she receiving 112 votes and Miss Houk 109. On the first ballot it was found 223 votes had been cast, and there were only 221 members entitled to the voting privileges. The vote of the first ballot was not announced On the second ballot only 221 votes were cast. Mrs. Elizabeth Collins is the retiring grand chief. The session closed with the exemplification of ritualistic work at the Masonic

TO REMOVE FEED WIRES

The Board of Works Will Make Tour of Inspection.

The members of the Board of Works will go over the ground to-morrow afternoon covered in the petition of the streetcar company to remove feed wires from prominent down town streets and place them in alleys. The company desires to string feed wires from the power house to reach all lines. The board took final action on the vaca-tion of the third alley north of New York street, from Noble to Spring street, and the widening of Vermont street to sixty feet from Lynn street to Bank avenue. hoard ordered the trolley poles on Senate avenue, from Indiana avenue to Twenty Kentucky-Avenue Tracks. Lew Wallace, jr., was before the Board of Works yesterday representing property owners on Kentucky avenue to urge the petition recently filed for the removal of tracks that are not used. Mr. Wallace said if the board did not intend to take action on the matter the property owners would file suit in the courts to compel the street-car company to remove the unused tracks. Chairman Sahm said the board had rendered no decision, as the tracks may be used for an interurban line and to this Mr. Wallace said the property owners would also object. Chairman Sahm de-cided to give a definite answer to-morrow, and it is said, the petition will be denied.

the Country Club. The semi-finals for the woman's golf championship series were played off at the Country Club links yesterday afternoon, Miss Van Camp defeating Miss New, and Mrs. New defeating Mrs. Miller. Mrs. New established a new record for both nine and eighteen holes, making the nine holes in forty-eight, and the eighteen holes in 110 Forty-eight is seven holes better than Mrs. New's previous record, it being the record for the course. New compares favorably with that of the average man golf player; in fact, there are only about twelve men in the Country

Shipment of Texas Cattle. In the past sixty days Indianapolis has become a good market for Texas cattle. In that time there has been shipped into this city over 5,000 head of fine cattle. Previous to that time one carload a month was all that was brought into this locality. Most of the cattle shipped into this market are being bought by the local butchers.
